Lime-Loss In Tuberculosis.

"It has been many times stated that in taberculosis or in the pretaberoulosis stage an increased amount of enicium (lime) is lost hoth in the urbse and feces. In fact, a demineralization has been thought to be a fore-runner of the development of tuber-culosis."

17.49 If tuberculosis is due to lime loss, the success of Eckman's Alterative in its freament may be due, in part, to its content of a lime sait so combined with other valuable ingredients as to be easily assumilated.

Always we have urred consumptives to attend strictly to matters of food, but often some effective remedial agent is needed. In many cases of apparent recovery Eckman's Alterative seems to have supplied this need. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs so is safe to try. From your druggist or direct.
